IMPRESSIONS OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS, the first recording on the Music with Nature Series™ by renowned composer and Colorado native, Steve Haun, passionately explores nature's awesome masterpiece—The Rocky Mountains. Majestic, poignant orchestral themes and reflective, serene interludes are blended and alternated with impeccably recorded nature sounds of wildlife and elements of the natural environment. Together, the musical compositions and nature soundscapes stimulate the senses to experience and relive again and again the grandeur that is the Rocky Mountains.

IMPRESSIONS OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS II, the second recording on the Music with Nature Series™ embraces the beauty and grandeur of the Rocky Mountains by combining soaring, uplifting melodies with sounds of nature and environmental elements. Commanding the Bösendorfer Imperial & Yamaha C7 Grand Piano's, accomplished composer Steve Haun's compelling piano artistry comes to life on this inspirational and sensuous recording that will stimulate the imagination and perception of the Rocky Mountains to an emotional height.

Keyboardist Steve Haun is the perfect Rocky Mountain composer. His sweeping orchestral flair enraptures like a rush of cool, high-altitude wind and his rhythmic diversity fits scenes of both pastoral reflection and skiing at a hundred mph down the slopes.
